From Nancy Roberts:

FIRST TO BLOOM PHAL CONTEST UPDATE: We have 3 (and possibly 4) members who have bloomed their plant from the Feb. meeting. WOW! Don't give up, since there are still many prizes left to win! Bring your plant to the picnic and we can all compare ours with the winner's plants to see if there are differences in leaf color, etc. The winners so far, plus any who have bloomed it since July, will receive their prize money at the picnic. To the winners: Please bring your plant to convince any skeptics!!
